With recent celebrity engagements — from Taylor and Travis to Zendaya and Tom to Selena and Benny — honeymoons are having a moment. While Paris, Bali, and Sydney remain among the most popular engagement spots, according to custom jewelry maker Glamira, couples are thinking far beyond the City of Lights when it comes to their once-in-a-lifetime trip. A honeymoon should feel unique and unforgettable — a true bucket list topper. And as we head into honeymoon planning season, trends show that newlyweds are widening their horizons. Trainline, a European rail booking app, reported that U.S. travelers are seeking out new destinations for their most romantic getaways. Ahead, discover the fastest-growing honeymoon spots, along with unique travel experiences for couples ready to relax, recharge, and celebrate their new life together.

Santorini, Greece

This volcanic island in the Aegean Sea is famous for its breathtaking sunsets, whitewashed buildings, blue-domed churches, and dramatic landscapes. Start your marriage on a healthy note with a wellness experience atop the highest point of Santorini at the Andronis Concept Wellness Resort. Each suite has an ocean-facing infinity pool, where you can watch awesome sunsets and sunrises when the sky turns pink. The Kallos Spa can tailor a treatment for you, including a 90-day wellness plan based on your nutrition and lifestyle too.
