Feeling a bit of wanderlust? And, maybe a touch of analysis paralysis (Libra hive, we see you). Why not let the stars decide where you should book your next trip. Whether you're craving a little solo serenity, a romantic escape, or a grid-worthy girls trip, with the help of our resident cosmic expert, Meghan Rose, we've matched each zodiac sign with a travel destination as perfectly curated as your Virgo bestie's itinerary.

Pisces: Ios, Greece

Pisces, your heart belongs to waterfront places steeped in beauty, mythology, and emotional resonance. This storied Greek island offers sunsets so cinematic they'll leave you full of joy for weeks to come (Pathos is a must-go). Visit Calilo, where the sparkles outside your window and the energy of Aphrodite herself lingers in the air. Craving even more adventure? Of course you, are Pisces. Boat on over to Santorini, and stay at the Andronis Luxury Suites for soul-enriching caldera views.
