Captivating horizon

Santorini is known for its beautiful views and where better to take them in than from your own private pool

A GRECIAN SANCTUARY
ANDRONIS CONCEPT
WELLNESS RESORT, SANTORINI

Santorini needs no introduction – if you are looking for the ultimate girls’ escape, the Andronis Concept delivers. Whether it’s bubbles by your infinity pool, spa days and chic dinners with your closest friends, you will find it all here.

Set high above the glittering caldera in Imerovigli, this all-suite sanctuary combines Cycladic minimalism with sleek modern design. Each suite comes with its own infinity pool – making it perfect for golden-hour cocktails and Champagne sunset toasts.

EACH SUITE COMES WITH ITS OWN INFINITY
POOL – MAKING
IT PERFECT FOR CHAMPAGNE
SUNSET TOASTS

Mornings start with sunrise yoga overlooking the Aegean, followed by pastel-perfect breakfasts. The Kallos Spa is a haven for group pamper sessions, offering volcanic stone massages and glow-boosting facials with local botanicals.

When evening calls, the Throubi Restaurant delivers Mediterranean dishes reimagined with a contemporary twist, each plate as artful as the view, and dressing up is part of the ritual here.

With the pool spilling into the horizon, inside, light, airy spaces in a soft neutral palette invite you to unpack your kalfans, heels and wide-brimmed hats. Andronis Concept isn’t just a stay – it’s a mood, a moment, a memory in the making.
