Opa!

Andronis Luxury Suites — the ultra-glam Greek hideaway beloved by royals and Hollywood A-listers — has thrown open its doors again after a lavish top-to-toe revamp, Page Six can reveal.

The celeb-magnet hotel — a favorite of everyone from the Kardashian-Jenners to top footballers and NBA stars — has undergone a next-level makeover, now offering 6-star standards while retaining its official 5-star status, with famous faces already flooding in.

The extensive renovation features an enhanced spa and Greek-style Taverna — which has already earned its stripes as the most renowned in The Cyclades.

The hotel is a known favorite to celebrities including Kim Kardashian, Kendall and Kylie Jenner, Olivia Culpo, Ed Westwick, Chanel Iman and Kanye West — who have all paid recent visits, Page Six can confirm.

Perched atop the Caldera cliff, Andronis Luxury Suites — the only Santorini hotel to feature two distinct dining venues — offers its guests endless Aegean sea views from a white-washed private residence.

Each villa boasts a private entrance, a heated infinity pool alongside an indoor cave pool, dedicated butler service and uninterrupted ocean views from every angle.

The resort, which boasts 29 VIP suites carved into the cliffside, also happens to be home to one of the most famous outdoor dining areas in the world: Lycabettus.

Its unmatched commitment to privacy is likely why so many celebrities — and even royals — opt to stay there.

In 2020, “Gossip Girl” alum Westwick shared a series of pics during his stay at the luxury hotel.

“The sun hits differently in Santorini. Maybe it’s the glint in the eyes of The Gods. Thanks for the memories, Andronis Luxury Suites,” the actor wrote on Facebook alongside a snap of himself at the time.

The following year, Olivia Culpo paid a visit to Andronis Arcadia in Oia. During her August 2021 stay, the model showed off her picturesque balcony views on Instagram.

The Kardashian-Jenner clan, for their part, stayed at Andronis Luxury Suites several times and even filmed their “Keeping Up With The Kardashians” hit show at the property.

Page Six can also reveal that Orlando Bloom is among the A-list admirers, having checked into the Andronis Concept Wellness Resort — an idyllic cliffside retreat in Santorini’s serene Imerovigli village.

Meanwhile, Andronis Minois — its sister property in Paros — offers its guests a more resort-like stay in the calm area of Parasporos, as seen in the Netflix smash hit “One Day,” released last year.

The 5-star hotel — which offers an array of experiences including wine tasting sessions, cooking lessons and horse riding — boasts 44 luxury suites, 14 of which offer small private pools overlooking the Aegean Sea.

The area is home to long-time resident actor Tom Hanks, and often sees billionaire Jeff Bezos and his fiancée Lauren Sánchez pull up on his superyacht.

Last year, Bezos and Sánchez enjoyed the picturesque Paros views with none other than the Skims founder, 44.

Additionally, actress Charlize Theron is known to have enjoyed several trips to Paros in recent years.
